

She Is beheld associated with the rays of the sun, tmimpeding sacred ceremonies/13. USHASJ possessor of food^ bring u$ Tarious wealth by which WQ may sustain sons grandsons.
14. Luminous USHAS? possessor of cows and horses, true of speech. here, to-day.
(ceremony), that Is to bring us wealth.
15. Possessor of focdj USHAS^ yoke, today, your purple and to us all things.
18, As*wiNSj destroyers of foes, turn, withfevour-
able intentions, your chariot towards our abode? which contains cattle and gold, 15. ASWIKS, who have sent adorable light JieaTeii^L to man, bring us strength.
16. May tie steeds, awakened at dawn? bring hither,- to drink the juice, the dmae As WINS, —who are the givers of happiness, the destroyers of feres,—seated in a golden chariot.

^a Aminaii daisydni rraidnt, not injuring,, that is, faTonrlBg₃ divine"rites, or offerings to*the gods,, which are to be performed by daylight* or after dawn; as by the text, Ha rdfrau ns devayd ajuskfam,—SacriSce is not acceptable to the gods at night, or in the eveMxig.

^b As beibre observed^ the Aswim are₃ SDmetimes, identified with the SHE and